

New name is good Logic

Special purpose vehicle Gentect Homes became Logic Homes this week in a rebranding exercise designed to reflect the organisation's expansion beyond Genesis Housing Group.

The company, which includes founding partner Genesis Housing Group, Hill Partnerships and McCann Homes, is expected to name a new housing association shareholder today. It is also considering taking on several smaller housing associations as associate partners.